. . . and no grownup will ever understand,
that this is a matter of so great importance

"Indeed, he who has a conviction strong enough to withstand the opposition of the crowd is the exception rather than the rule, an exception often admired centuries later, mostly laughed at by his contemporaries."

KNOCKING AROUND THE ZOO

one winter afternoon

(at the magical hour when is becomes if)

a bespangled clown
standing on eighth street
handed me a flower.

Nobody, it's safe to say, observed him but myself; and why?because without any doubt he was whatever (first and last)

most people fear most:
a mystery for which i've no word except alive

— that is, completely alert
and miraculously whole;

with not merely a mind and a heart

but unquestionably a soul —
by no means funereally hilarious

(or otherwise democratic) but essentially poetic or ethereally serious:

a fine not a coarse clown
(no mob, but a person)

and while never saying a word

who was anything but dumb;
since the silence of him self sang like a bird.

Most people have been heard screaming for international measures that render hell rational

— i thank heaven somebody's crazy

enough to give me a daisy e.e. cummings

dedication

Ever since ... ered the High Sch... l in 1968, Mr. Barnes, Mr. Galligan and Mr. Appleford, have been more than ... odians to us. Not only ha... they surmounted unbelievable odds to keep this school in habitable ..., but they have always supporte... ctivities above and beyond the call of duty. We, the class of '72, just want to say: Guys, you're alright!

Nothing ever built arose to touch the skies unless some man dreamed that it should, some man believed that it could.

Ronald Judge Ron
Life is to be enjoyed so I enjoy it.

The Best Ever

Barbara Pipes Barbara
The most important things in life aren't free.

Susan Curtis Sue
To understand the heart and mind of a woman, listen to her when she looks at you.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Marybeth O'Hara M.B.
To live is like to love — all reason is against it, and all healthy instinct is for it.

Brian Harrington Hacker
I am what I am- that's all I can be.

Alan Waters Alan
Life is a comedy for those who think, a tragedy for those who feel.

John Monteiro John
We shall not always be as we are — but what we are to become depends on what we dream and desire.

Joseph McCarron Joe
Any man can stand up to his opponents, give me the man who can stand up to his friends.

Constance Abell Connie
Man has his will but woman has her way.

Luiz Carlos Abreu Luiz
If you smile at me I will understand, because everyone smiles in the same language.

Barbara Acker Barbara
The main thing in life is not to be afraid to be human.

Joanne Adams Joanne
My nature is subdued to what it works in.

Marianne Ahola Marianne
A woman of true beauty is a joy to mankind.

Joan Amendola Joan
A friendly smile and a friendly way.

Gary Anderson Gary
Perhaps another time, maybe another place could have eased my mind.

Lois Anderson Lois
Self-assurance sits in the back seat and directs our travels.

Sarah Anderson Sarah
My thoughts are ripe in mischief.

Edmund Andresen Eddie
Behold, this dreamer cometh.

Marylee Archibald Marylee
She is pretty to walk with, witty to talk with, and pleasant too, to think on.

Karen Aznavarian Karen
Happiness is having a good friendship with the world.

Margo Attaya Margo
Always herself, simple, honest, and unpretending.

Barbara Baggs Barbara
To laugh and love, to flirt is life.

Elizabeth Baggs Liz
People should wake up and dream again.

Michael Barrett Mike
Good humor makes all things tolerable.

Jeff Barrington Jeff
The style is the man himself.

Margaret Barton Meg
It doesn't matter who you love, or how you love but that you love.

Peter Babin Pete Kid
When you part from your friend, you grieve not because that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence.

Stephen Baxter Boo
I can resist anything but temptation.

Janice Bergman
The more we love, the better we are, and the greater our friendships are.

Seana Black Seana
Beauty is that which attracts your soul, that which loves to give and not to receive.

Charles Bearce Chuck
I hasten to laugh for life is to be enjoyed.

Katharine Berlo Kathy
Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die.

James Blanchard Blanch
The more a man knows, the more he forgives.

Thomas Bell Tom
As long as the sun shines, one does not ask for tomorrow.

Stephen Bogusz Steve
Good nature and hard work breed success.

Deborah Bonney Debbie
Wake with a sense of music coming along with a body in movement.

Kathleen Bowie Kathy
It isn't life that matters. It's the spirit you bring to it that counts.

A friend is someone neither to be

For, so much of 'Love' we know
is pride —
So much of Friendship
Love

Claire Brady Claire
Her quiet composure and dignity have awed us.

Gail Brennan Gail
All the world's a stage . . . and most of us are desperately underrehearsed.

Maureen Brennan Moey
If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way.

David Bresnahan Bres
In being nothing, you are everything.

Peter Babin Peter
When you part from your friend you grieve not; for that which you admire most may become clearer in his absence.

Lynn Brisson Lynn
No one has ever loved anyone the way everyone wants to be loved.

James Broderick Jim
The grass is greener on the other side.

Kathleen Brouthers Kathy
I always prefer the best of everyone, it saves so much trouble.

would it embarrass you if we told that we love you

Rosanne Brown Rosie
Times spent in laughter is well invested.

Thomas Brown Tom
The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Jeffrey Buckman J.B.
Sigh no more ladies . . Sigh no more.

James Burkhardt Jimmy
Men of few words are the best men.

John Callahan John
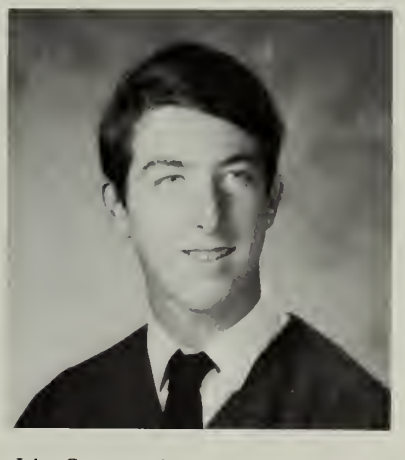
What a frosty spirited rogue is this!

Joan Campbell Soupy
She's calm and reserved, that's as far as it goes; she seems to be quiet; yet one never knows.

Linda Carlson Linda
Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society.

Stephen Carroll Stevie
Keep smiling, it makes everyone wonder what you've been up to.

Rosemarie Casali Rosemarie
The noice is on the inside.



John Cavanaugh John
Face piles of trials — with smiles. It riles them that you perceive the web they weave, and keep on thinking free!

Deborah Chase Debbie
It takes two to speak the truth — one to speak and another to hear.

Thomas Chessia Tom
Simply the thing I am shall make me live.

Christopher Clark Chris
A man is only what he makes himself.

John Clark John
Let everyone walk his own path to success.

Edward Cody Eddie
He'll laugh his way through life.

Jane Anderson Janie
In every perfect snowflake, love is found.

Kathryn Clark Click
The manner of giving is worth more than the gift.

Patricia Clifford Cliffie
She looks soft and sweet but there is mischief twinkling in her eyes.

Melissa Cogan Missy
Some say she's quiet, but others know she's not.

Michelle Comeau Michelle
They wooed her and she resisted, they neglected her and she fell in love.

Peter Connolly Peter
Mischief — he had a mind to conceive it and a hand to execute it.

Rosemary Connors Rosemary
Her smile brightens everyday.

Susan Cook Susan
The world was made round so that friendship could circle it.

Deborah Coombs Debbie
Laughter is regional, a smile extends over the whole face.

Chalres Cooper Charlie
Life is what you make it.

CLASS HISTORY — 1972

Our class was always on the wrong foot . . . we started off by all missing kindergarten. First grade saw Charlie R. always walking around with tape on his mouth . . . and Jeff B. as the sensation of Wampatuck with his white shoes. And NOBODY could beat the Krobocks in marbles. Michelle C. broke her leg and was carried off the playground by the most handsome guy around. Colleen Mc. and Chip Mc. visited kindergarten for a day for slamming their desks. Trading parties at Central was THE thing. After every snowstorm we had a snow sculpture contest. Trees always seemed to get in Bob W.'s way . . . and we all cried when they cut down our clubhouse tree at Wampatuck.

Jimmy B. led us into sin by skipping school in third grade. Patty S. got her first kiss from Ronnie J. Janice D. got her blouse caught in her jacket zipper and Mr. Chambers had to tear her blouse to get it undone. Leslie W. got sick all over Nancy F. Jeff B. and Mike T. were the Don Juans of the elementary school. We finally made it through . . . with Linda P., Janie A., and Anna D. having accidents all along the way.

Sixth grade brought us into a new mature world. Nancy H. led a revolt of the girls in Miss McDevitt's class by not wearing socks. Mrs. Keenan gave us our gym suits and led us into the world of shower checks, feet checks, and hair checks . . . while Carol S. led us in our first gym night.

In seventh grade we all became one. Jimmy R. chased Kent N. down the halls yelling "Smoke a Kent", and in turn everyone would chase Jimmy down the hall yelling "Gopher". Seana B. hit it off well with Charlie Tuna. Patti S., Jackie D. and Anna D. mastered the art of stichery by sewing their fingers. Mary D. and Beth D. had to stay after for Mr. Bielski and sing "I'm a nut" to the chair leg. Mrs. Smith gave us our first sex lecture . . . and who could forget Mrs. Johnson's eye and finger exercises? Everyone paid 50¢ so they could wear pants on "wear-what-you-want" days. Mr. Bielski broke a ruler over Janie A's head . . . and Sean G. got suspended for shooting a squirtgun at Mr. McPeak. The comedy team of Meg W., Terry M., Sheila D., Seana B., Brooke M., Nancy H., Mary S., Linda C. and many others entertained with their famed "Shoo-Fly-Pie". And Mrs. Page made us eat EVERYTHING we made . . . so Kathy O'B. thought she'd get the better of her by throwing her tomato soup out the window . . . only to have it land on Miss Annis.

Eighth grade brought on the BIG romances . . . Marybeth and Sean G., Kathy O'B. and George J., Michelle C. and Dave E. And Barbara P. was the hit of the library for blowing kisses over to Chip Mc. The eighth grade formal brought an end to many romances . . . the girls were suppose to sit down and wait for the boys to get their cake and punch . . . and Mrs. Smith's husband had made the cake . . . no wonder it tasted so good. Linda C. walked into Mr. Bordne's room and he could TELL she was wearing culottes . . . while Alan W. was eating a loaf of bread in Mr. Corbin's class. And the peak of Tommy M's grammar school athletic career came when he ran up third base instead of first. Then came the big showdown for President — Peter B., Marybeth O'H. and Patty C. — with Peter emerging the victor, our leader in the world of the unexplored.

So amidst the jungle of long legs, broad shoulders, and new faces . . . we found ourselves. Determined to have ourselves made known to the rest of SHS, we set to work on our freshman float — yet it was hardly worth the trouble — it brought us in last place and a bill for the broken window at the police station.

And the girls will never forget Alice's warcry, "Alright, ladies — you belong in the gym!!!" Or the time a few members of Mr. Chiros's freshman biology class brought their frog legs to lunch and mixed them with everyone else's french fries. Susan C. had a pajama party for 25 girls — and Tommy M., Brad T., and Mike M. were caught there at 3:00 in the morning by Tommy's mother. And the freshmen girls shot for the stars — hockey, football, basketball . . . Marybeth O'H. and Kent N. celebrated the end of the year by both holding pajama parties — very close together.

Sophomore year saw Jim "Star" G. making his debut at SHS in Miss Doyle's class production of "The Scarlet Letter", and Laura S. gave a magnificent performance of an old lady in another presentation. Our luck with floats didn't improve much — this time it started out as a kangaroo and ended up as a lighthouse . . . but the great times at Limonts made it worthwhile. Our sophomore car wash was a terrific success — we were more concerned with washing each other, so the cars left dirtier than they were before they came. Joey Mc. went so far as to chase some of the girls half a mile with a bucket of soapy water.

Junior year brought the Variety Show — where everyone, willing or not, made their debut before countless Broadway scouts . . . while others were making their debut before Scituate's blue-uniformed scouts. And the class "hams" came out — Mary Ellen S., Kathy H., Donna K., John R., and John D., supported by a cast of thousands. Then, after some debate, our Prom plans were underway. Led by Michelle W. and Donna Y. everyone contributed to making the night a memorable one . . . to say nothing of the day after. Junior year went as fast as it came, and we were on our way to becoming "BIG" seniors . . .

Stevie C. opened the year by getting a standing ovation in Caf. B for successfully wearing his carrots all over him. And Senior Lounge . . . who can forget the great times in there? . . . the Las Vegas type outlook it often took on — without the money, of course . . . and the African mumbo music masterfully executed by Bob W., Bob F., Mike M., and their gang. And the senior girls entertaining themselves with "musical chairs", "redlight", and other childhood amusements. And the final year of competition was on between Stu's Warsaw Warriors and Grif's Jersey Giants . . . who, after four years, would emerge the victors? And who will forget Marylee's "seniors only" party? And we eagerly await Peter Babin's return . . . Our thanks go to Miss Doyle and Mr. Dwyer for helping us through.

SO THEY'RE BIGGER THAN US - THEY'VE GOT HEIGHT AND WEIGHT.. SO THEY'VE BEEN CHAMPS FOR TWO CONSECTUTIVE YEARS. SO WHAT IF WE GET A FEW BONES BROKEN LIKE LAST TIME.

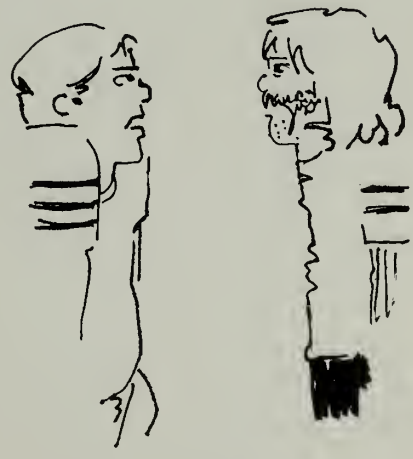
WE'RE GONNA GIVE OUR BEST TO AT LEAST GIVE THEM A GOOD FIGHT! (DESPITE THE CONSEQUENCES). WE'RE GONNA DO IT FOR THOSE TEN PEOPLE IN THE STANDS, FOR THE SCHOOL ... FOR THE FLAG AND THE ALMIGHTY PIGSKIN! ...

HEY, WHERE ARE YOU GOING? YOU CAN'T DO THIS ... THERE'S A GAME TO PLAY!

HOW ABOUT DOING IT FOR A FREE SIX-PACK EACH?

FOOTBALL IS THE AMERICAN SPORT. YOU GOTTA BE ROUGH AND A REAL MAN TO PLAY. SOCCER IS A SISSY, FOREIGN SPORT.

LISTEN JOCK, FOOTBALL ISN'T AMERICAN ... IT'S FROM ENGLAND. ALSO IN SOCCER, YOU HAVE TO HAVE PERFECT COORDINATION AND A QUICK MIND-NOT MUSCLE. SOCCER IS NOT POPULAR IN THE US, BUT IT IS THE SPORT OF THE WORLD.



JUST LIKE YOU PINKO FREAKS TO TEAR APART EVERYTHING THAT OUR GREAT COUNTRY STANDS FOR ... EVEN THE ALMIGHTY PIGSKIN.

The ball glides out and up bounces,
lands,
wobbles,
wavers,
hesitates,
leans,
and then drives down and through

They don't create a mild sensation — they become one!

THE SHOCK OF RECOGNITION

The shock of recognition!
We can no longer be contained or ignored. Too many people know too much about each other. Our new environment compels commitment and participation. We have become irrevocably involved with and responsible for each other.

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Found in Old Saint Paul's Church, Baltimore; Dates 1692

The problem that confronts us today, and that the nearest future is to solve, is how to be one's self and yet in oneness with others, to feel deeply with all human beings and still retain one's own characteristic qualities

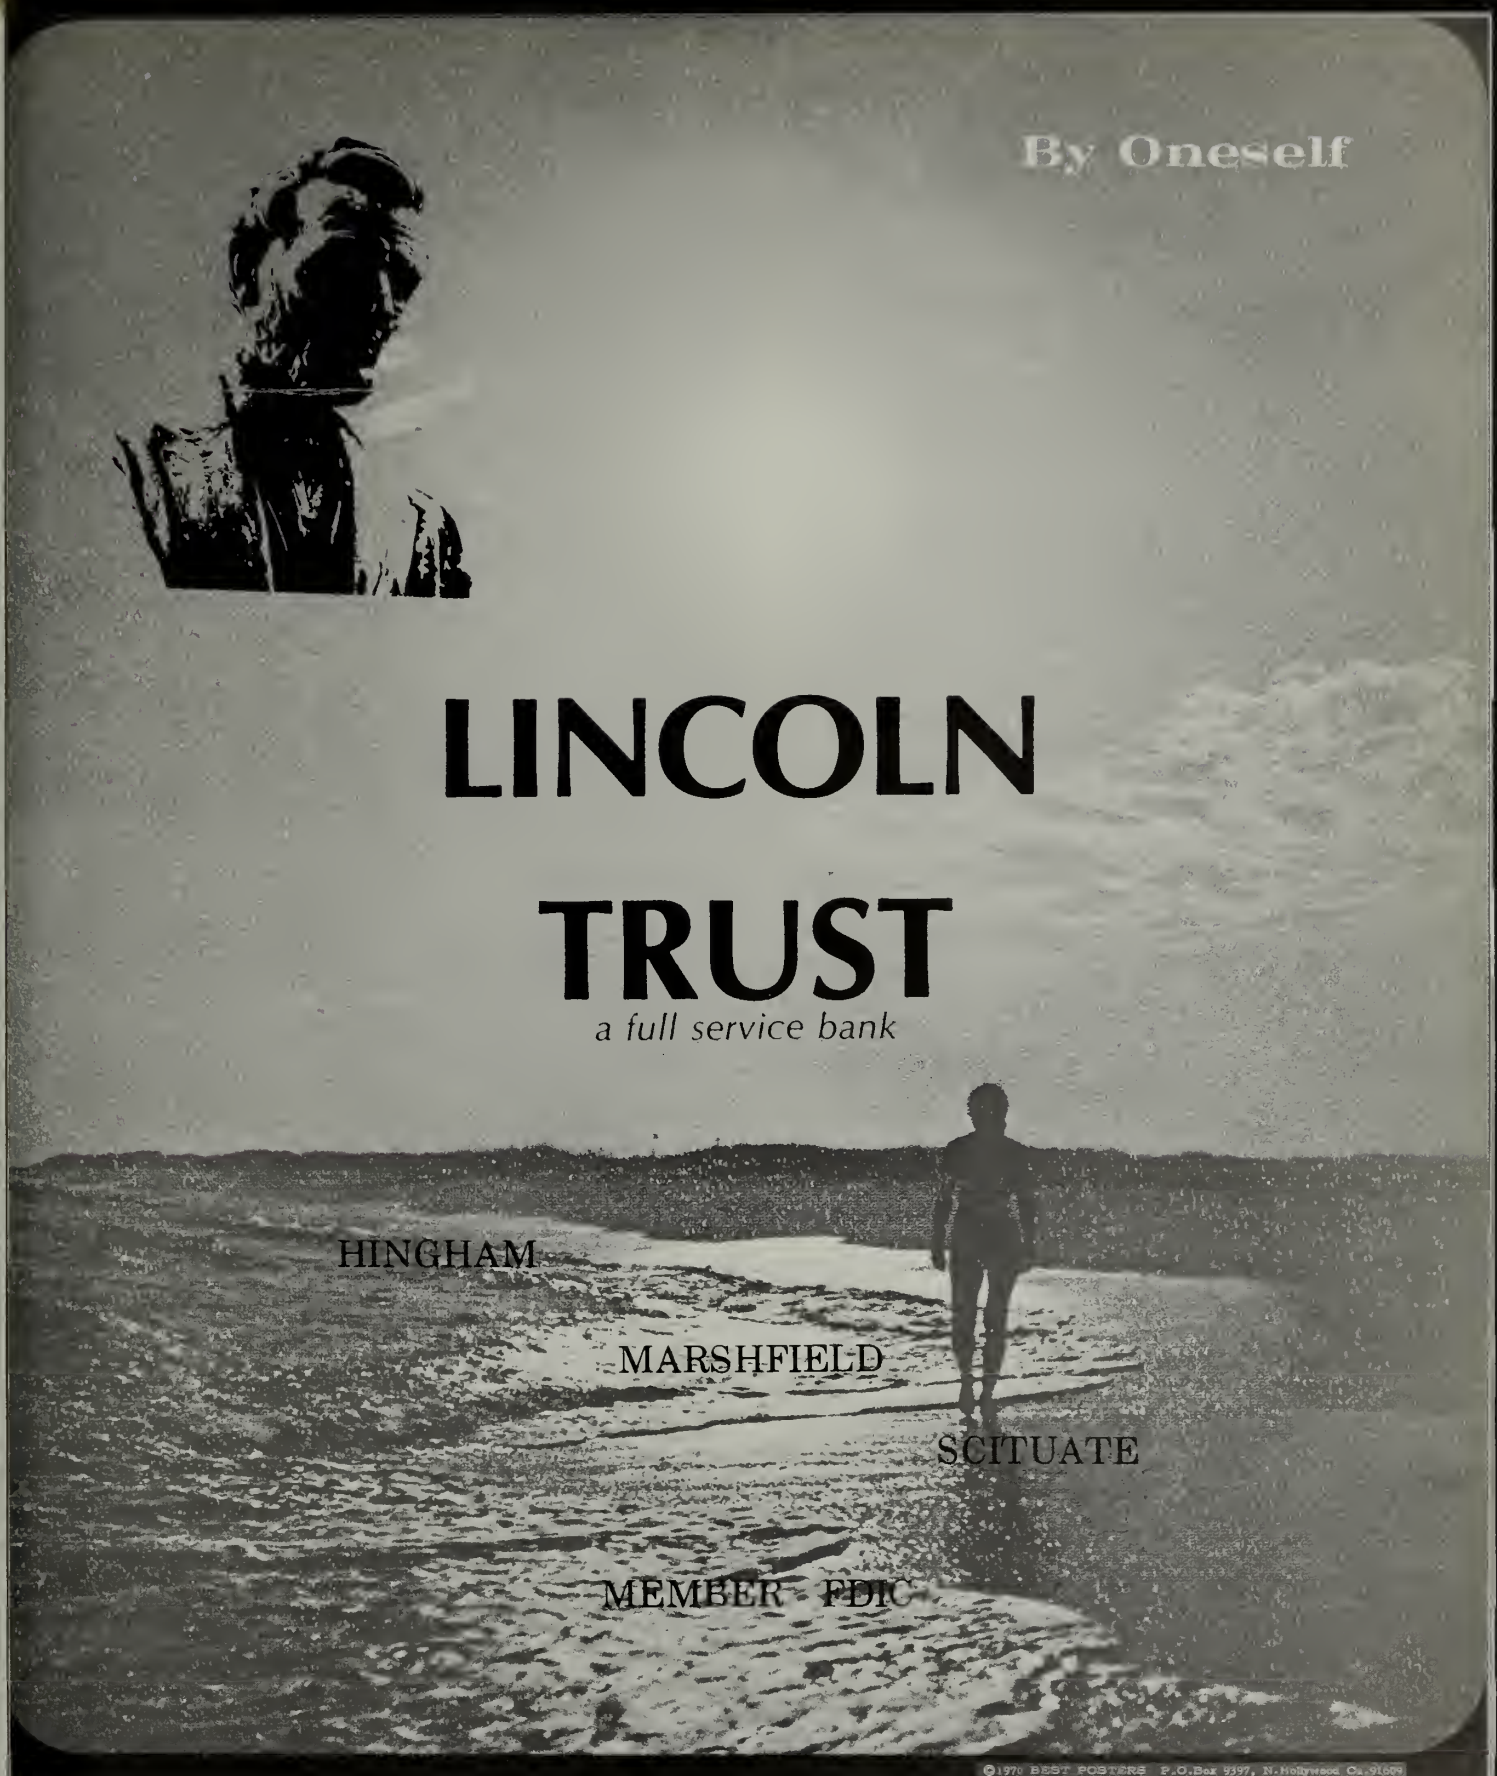
Emma Goldman



Sadness is . . .
An empty feeling.
So I walk,
The sky my ceiling.

Walking along
The huge, calm sea
I feel small
Just my sorrow--and me.

To be of few words and to be of many actions is to follow the path of nature.

A storm does not drop all its rain in one place, nor does a river have one tributary, or is there just one wave in the ocean, or does the sun always shine. Rather, a continued variation and repetition of acts gives the harmony and balance to nature. This is what we should strive for: Love in all forms and all kinds becomes the harmony of man.

It is essential that we work togher, and it is as if we were building a house. If some of us are building and others are tearing down, the house will obviously never be built. So we must individually be very clear that we really see and understand the necessity of bringing about the kind of education that will produce a new generation capable of dealing with the issues of life as a whole, and not as isolated parts unrelated to the whole.
